KETTERING TOWN FC

Kettering Town Football Club at the heart of our community for 145 years

On a wet Thursday afternoon, 19th December 1872, an eclectic band of would-be footballers – gentlemen, schoolboys and working-class lads, led by the son of a local doctor – gathered in a field off Green Lane in Kettering to face a team from Uppingham School.

Against a backdrop of grey skies, smoking chimneys and a graceful church spire, in an era when the game was a raw blend of rough-and-tumble, skill and sheer bravery, when long pants were de rigueur and the rules upheld by gentlemanly captains, Kettering Town's first game kicked off.

Before the end of Queen Victoria's reign Kettering would have beaten the forerunners of Northampton Saints and Leicester Tigers at rugby, become the first Northamptonshire club to lift the Senior Cup, entered the FA Cup, turned professional, won two Midland League championships, moved to its ancestral home in Rockingham Road and played competitive fixtures against and on occasion beaten the likes of Newton Heath (Manchester United), Woolwich Arsenal, Tottenham Hotspur and Leicester Fosse.

Kings and Queens came and went but the Poppies – a nickname the club adopted more than a century ago – endured, through the highs and lows, new leagues, new opponents, new challenges.

Twice a Kettering team would compete beneath (old) Wembley's Twin Towers, taking a huge following of townfolk with them to North London in 1979 and 2000 – the last FA Trophy final played at the iconic stadium. Numerous times the club's FA Cup giant-killing exploits have made the headlines; indeed, to this day Kettering Town has registered more goals in the famous old competition than any other club in the land.

And so, 145 years later, Kettering Town are still very much at the heart of our community. The Poppies are now playing at Latimer Park. Burton Latimer having sadly moved away from Rockingham Road several years ago. Enduring another low point before coming back stronger than before, now heading in the right direction.

The Kettering Town FC Youth teams & Academy now run 17 teams aged from Under 5's through to Under 21's with 210 players registered. Add to that the Vets team, the Ladies teams and the Little Legends early years group, all adding up to strong foundations for the future and cementing our place in the Kettering community.

Then we have the first team who are enjoying a very good start to the season, currently challenging for top of the league.

Our own Poppies TV 'LIVE' internet channel is streamed around the globe, providing match day coverage, interviews and highlights plus an audio service for away games.

Support has increased by 27%, local businesses are supporting us by advertising around the ground and in our matchday programme, Newlands Shopping, ProSaw, BGBET, Loake Shoemakers, so many more from many different business types. We have a local business on the front of our shirts in the form of BM Pallets with FixAuto Kettering on the back.

All matches this season have been sponsored, most of the players have been sponsored. Nevertheless, we are always looking for more support from the local businesses, we endeavour to remain loyal to each industry or business type, at present we have no Estate Agents, Car Showrooms, Electrical Goods stores or Taxi companies on board. Boughton House is getting into the festive spirit from Friday 1st December, with the return of its Christmas Fair.

Boughton House in Kettering, Northamptonshire, is home to the Duke and Duchess of Buccleuch. The House displays a staggering collection of fine art including paintings from El Greco, Gainsborough and Van Dyck, the highest quality furniture, porcelain, weapons and textiles. The 17th Century Designed Landscape at Boughton includes the canalised river and lily pond. The House and Gardens are open throughout the year for group visits, by appointment, and for weddings, private and corporate events. The house and gardens are open to the public throughout August each year and over Easter weekend.

Visitors will have the chance to select from British-grown hand-cut Nordmann fir and potted Omorika trees at the annual event at the home to the Duke of Buccleuch.

Boughton's historic stable block gift shop will be stocking gifts for the whole family, alongside a selection of luxury food and drink. Enjoy books from local authors Alan Toseland and Vic Crouse, plus tipples from Pot Belly Brewery in Kettering, Harrington's Gin and Two Birds vodka from the market town of Market Harborough.

A selection of handmade wreaths and specially selected Christmas decorations will also be on sale.

Refreshments will be on offer for visitors over the weekends of the 2nd-3rd December.

Charles Lister, Property Manager at Boughton House, said: "We've enjoyed a fantastic programme of activity this year. From a garden festival to a special exhibition and open air theatre, it has been a real celebration of the great outdoors.

We're delighted to be rounding off the year with our special Christmas event here at the House. Our Christmas trees are always a big hit with visitors and there will be lots of locally sourced gifts to choose from, if you're looking for something special.

It's also a rare opportunity to enjoy these stunning surroundings in winter, when we're only open by appointment.

We're looking forward to welcoming guests from near and far when the gates open in December."

Boughton's Christmas Fair runs from 1-17 December from 10am-5pm daily, and with late opening until 7pm on Fridays.
